1. Soviet jet planes have been seen for the first time over the Ustka (Stolpmünde - P55/G80) area. Two or three such planes were observed each day from 7-10 July flying westward in formation at an altitude of about 1,500 m. and skirting the coastline. No return flights were seen.
2. Soviet PT boats (scigacz) and mine layers have been observed recently in the Ustka area. No Polish or Soviet military transports have been seen, but sailors from ships on the Baltic have reported seeing some Soviet light cruisers weighing between 5,000 and 7,000 British registered tons (BRT).*
3. On 9 June the Polish sea holiday "Swieto Morza" was celebrated with much less pomp than in 1949. About 30 Soviet air force officers and 14 enlisted men have arrived in Ustka in the past three weeks from a nearby airfield.**

25X1 Comment: There are known to be one ex-German Soviet light cruiser of 6,000 registered tons and three or four heavy cruisers of up to 9,000 registered tons in the Baltic.

25X1 Comment: These officers may come from the air field on the Vietsker See (Wick Morski - P55/M79) where a Polish-Soviet air force unit is based.
